1. Introduction

Choose Love’s Accountability policy is one of its four safeguarding standards, the others being Safeguarding, People and Partnerships and Risk Management. Each standard has policies within them. Together, they represent a comprehensive safeguarding framework. Choose Love’s policies are available on its website, here.

Choose Love works towards a world wherein people on the move\(^1\) are treated with dignity and respect and protected from harm. Our work is guided and supported by a safeguarding framework which is made up of a number of policies and which is consistent with professional best practice, compliant with the law and relevant regulations, and which reflects the nature of our work. Our intention is to promote the development of a safeguarding culture that prioritises the safety and well-being of our staff\(^2\) and beneficiaries and those who come into contact with us through our work.

Typically, ‘accountability’ is defined as ‘the quality or state of being accountable; an obligation or willingness to accept responsibility for one’s actions’\(^3\). Choose Love believes that implementing robust standards for accountability using effective controls and oversight contributes to foster good safeguarding practice.

Just as Choose Love recognises and accepts its responsibility to account upwards – for example to our governing body, to Prism the Gift fund and to its donors, supporters, and the general public via the Charity Commission – we also recognise that we are accountable to the communities we support through the work that we fund through our partners, and that this can only be realised if beneficiaries are engaged in a dialogue with those who work to support them.

We therefore require our partners to engage with and support the development of community safeguarding structures, where this is appropriate, and to support and facilitate the inclusion of beneficiaries in safeguarding work that is done in their name. This is explained in more detail below.

Choose Love also commits to monitor and review all elements of our safeguarding standards to ensure both upward and downward accountability.

2. Purpose

This accountability policy is to ensure that:

1. Lines of safeguarding accountability are clear to all Choose Love’s stakeholders.

\(^1\) Including asylum seekers, displaced persons, and refugees.

\(^2\) Staff: Employees and directors, freelance workers (self-employed and agency staff); volunteers, interns and secondees.

\(^3\) Webster’s dictionary definition of “Accountability”
2. Learning from practical case experience is used to inform and improve Choose Love’s suite of safeguarding standards and policies.
3. Regular internal reviews are carried out, lessons are learnt, and appropriate action is taken.

3. Positive Governance and Accountability

We regard accountability as a mutually reinforcing dynamic, comprising, on the one hand, system change and improvement that is driven by accountability to the people being served, and, on the other, by enabling the empowerment of the people being served to take increasing ownership of their own change. This is of fundamental importance to challenge the systemic imbalance within traditional models of humanitarian assistance.

4. Upward safeguarding accountability

Upward accountability is the relationship between charities and their donors, governing bodies and regulatory bodies. It reflects a set of obligations by charities to report and to be held accountable.

Choose Love funds the work of partners. It ensures that clear lines of reporting and accountability are in place to ensure that safeguarding incidents are dealt with appropriately, and that the procedures set out in Choose Love’s safeguarding framework are followed.

5. Procedures for upward safeguarding accountability

The chart below illustrates the reporting line from our implementing partners through Choose Love’s safeguarding focal points, safeguarding lead and non-executive directors (henceforth, ‘directors’) and to the Prism board of trustees’ responsibility to the Charity Commission.

Choose Love’s board of directors is responsible for ensuring that Choose Love’s donors are informed of any safeguarding concerns reported to us. The Prism Board of Trustees is responsible for reporting to the Charity Commission.
6. Accountability of Prism

Choose Love is not a registered charity. Choose Love operates as a collective fund under the auspices of its affiliated charity, Prism the Gift Fund. Prism provides technical and managerial support pertaining to Choose Love’s collection and distribution of funds. Prism’s trustee board is responsible for ensuring that work funded via its collective fund complies with relevant safeguarding standards and to ensure that it is able to meet its regulatory obligations to the Charity Commission.

To ensure that Prism is kept informed of all safeguarding issues, the Safeguarding Lead for Choose Love reports all safeguarding incidents arising on any project funded through the collective fund to the Safeguarding Lead on Choose Love’s directors, and Prism’s Head of Compliance, who will in turn inform Prism’s trustees.

Choose Love’s Safeguarding Lead will work with Choose Love’s directors and Prism to ensure that they are fully informed about any safeguarding incident and will also communicate any course of action recommended by Choose Love in response to any incident that is reported. Prism will report any safeguarding incident that it determines is a reportable serious incident to the Charity Commission. The board of Prism has authority to determine Prism’s response to any safeguarding incident within Choose Love or on a project funded by the collective fund that it manages on behalf of Choose Love.

7. Accountability of Choose Love

Choose Love is a limited company (Choosing Love Ltd.), managed by directors. Choose Love’s Safeguarding Lead will report all safeguarding matters to the designated director at board level. Choose Love’s director with designated safeguarding responsibilities is responsible for ensuring that the Choose Love board of directors is fully informed of the situation and will recommend the appropriate course of action to it. In addition to any action taken by Prism, Choose Love will independently report to its donors any safeguarding incident that Prism determines is a reportable serious incident, or which the Choose Love’s board otherwise determines should be notified to donors.

At the operational level, Choose Love’s Executive Leadership Team (ELT), through its Safeguarding Lead is responsible for ensuring a working environment and culture conducive to the implementation of all aspects of its safeguarding framework standards. The implementation strategy of Choose Love’s safeguarding framework and subsequent reviews will be presented by the ELT to the Choose Love board of directors for approval.

Choose Love’s Safeguarding Lead is accountable for identifying the training, support and resource required to implement Choose Love’s safeguarding framework effectively and for reporting on this to the Executive Leadership Team for its consideration. This will include ensuring that staff are appropriately trained in conducting thorough due diligence of potential partners, ensuring memoranda of understanding (MOUs) between Choose Love and partners reflect safeguarding responsibilities and consequences for non-compliance, and ensuring that Choose Love’s monitoring and evaluation frameworks incorporate safeguarding. Prism the Gift fund will ensure that partner agreements reflect safeguarding responsibilities and consequences for non-compliance.

The ELT is responsible for earmarking or securing adequate resources in relation to the effective implementation of the safeguarding framework and any further strategy in relationship to safeguarding set by the board. The ELT will ensure that the Safeguarding Lead delegates responsibility for implementing the safeguarding framework to appropriate members of staff within Choose Love, including country level safeguarding focal points.
All managers are accountable for ensuring that all staff under their supervision have received safeguarding training and that safeguarding is a standing agenda item in all supervision meetings. All staff are accountable for following the procedures for reporting safeguarding concerns, making appropriate records, and observing the code of conduct expectations.

The Director of Programmes is responsible for ensuring that partners are assessed in accordance with Choose Love’s due diligence framework and are adequately trained and resourced to fulfil their safeguarding obligations, and that a capacity building package is in place if needed and if resources are available.

The role and responsibilities of our key safeguarding officers can be seen in Attachment 1.

8. Bottom-up safeguarding accountability

Bottom-up accountability refers to processes by which organisations are held accountable by the communities they support. Bottom-up accountability is characterised by a more complex dynamic of relationships between charities, their implementing partners, and the beneficiaries/communities whom they support.

Choose Love recognises the complexity of this relationship. It commits to transparent engagement with partners based on an agenda of common purpose built on mutual trust, designed to enable the achievement of agreed contractual outcomes determined in the partnership agreement.

Moreover, we believe that an informed, empowered and engaged community is fundamental to a meaningful safeguarding accountability structure. Whilst the reporting process remains ‘bottom up’, i.e., from the community to the Charity Commission, the process depends upon the engagement of an informed and empowered beneficiary community. Choose Love recognises that many of our beneficiaries are often vulnerable, transitory, and disempowered and that this exposes them to significant safeguarding risks. We also acknowledge problems of delivering genuine, sustained community engagement for us and our downstream partners.

Notwithstanding this, we require our implementing partners to embrace and deliver the principle of community engagement with the people they support. Requirements are situation dependent and to be agreed by Choose Love and each partner. For example, where Choose Love grant funds through the collective fund managed by Prism to its partners to engage in community development work, we require partners to demonstrate a community engagement strategy, details of which may be seen in the People and Partnership policy. For those whom we fund via payment of receipts – i.e., where we pay for the one-off supplies or services – we require our partners to:

a. Provide evidence of a needs-assessment process and the nature and degree of engagement of the community in this process.

b. Evidence a priority beneficiary selection process.

c. Provide receipts and to account for expenditure in an agreed fashion.

d. Monitor the success of the distribution of goods and services and to share findings with Choose Love.

Choose Love’s support for the capacity strengthening of our implementing partners and the partners’ work with beneficiary communities will be determined following the findings of a due diligence assessment.

Monitoring and Lesson Learning

Choose Love monitors our compliance with the safeguarding framework, and the safeguarding practices of our partners, in a number of ways:

- We will apply our safer recruitment policies and train our staff appropriately and we expect the same from our partners.
- Choose Love’s Programmes team will monitor partners’ compliance with the safeguarding standards that have been agreed with us.
- Choose Love will schedule meetings with beneficiaries and their representatives during monitoring visits.
- Choose will undertake periodic reviews of partners’ compliance with safeguarding standards.
- A safeguarding update will be included in all scheduled reports by Choose Love to its directors and the trustees of Prism.
- Choose Love will review annually its safeguarding standards and associated policies and present them for approval to the directors of Choose Love and the trustees of Prism.

- Maintain proper records on all cases referred to him/her in a secure and confidential manner.
- Keep up to date on current developments regarding provision, practice, support services, legal obligations/requirements, and policy. This will include attending safeguarding training.

4. The Safeguarding Focal Point’s Role - Choose Love Programmes Team

Our Programmes team, by virtue of having a close working relationship with our partners, are most likely to receive initial safeguarding disclosures from staff and volunteers of our partners, beneficiaries, or other concerned parties. With this in mind we require each regional team to have one person allocated as a Safeguarding Focal point. This role will involve additional responsibilities highlighted below and will be supported by Choose Love’s Safeguarding Lead.

Key Responsibilities

- Coordinate the implementation of Choose Love’s safeguarding framework in the country in which you are working / responsible for with your respective team members.
- Ensure that Choose Love’s safeguarding framework, including reporting pathways for raising concerns, is visible for team members at country offices/workspaces being used.
- Be a first point of contact for implementing partners, staff, and volunteers to refer safeguarding concerns or complaints and document all concerns.
- Report all safeguarding concerns to Choose Love’s Safeguarding Lead for further support.
- Store safeguarding records in a secure place.
- Refer all media queries in relation to safeguarding to the Safeguarding Lead (via safeguarding@choose.love)
• Signpost implementing partners to safeguard resources and training in consultation with the safeguarding lead.
• Provide logistical support for in-country safeguarding investigations, related to Choose Love staff.
• Engage communities and partners in the implementation of appropriate reporting mechanisms between Choose Love, beneficiaries, and the grantee.
• Support programmes officers with safeguarding compliance for partners.
• Meet with the Safeguarding Lead on a monthly basis to share specific safeguarding issues and highlight any support required.

In addition to the mandatory safeguarding annual refresher training that will be delivered to all Choose Love employees, the safeguarding focal point will receive additional training for working in their specific context, as well as training for implementing security and risk management planning.

The safeguarding focal point is accountable to the Safeguarding Lead for their safeguarding responsibilities.
