

Serious incident Reporting Form for Partners of Choose Love

Choose Love is committed to protecting every person supported or assisted by work that it funds, including the work of its partners. This safeguarding reporting form is for the use of partners. Complaints and grievances are an internal matter for the partners to resolve and should not be reported here.

Partners should use this form to report to Choose Love a serious safeguarding incident relating to your organisation's staff, volunteers, and trustees. A serious incident is an adverse event, whether actual or alleged, which results in or risks significant:

- Harm to your charity's beneficiaries, staff, volunteers, or others who come into contact with your charity through its work.
- Loss of your charity's money or assets.
- Damage to your charity's property.
- Harm to your charity's work or reputation.

Examples can include a serious crime or physical/sexual violence to a client, staff member, volunteer or member of the public, fraud, financial misconduct, criminal activity by staff, volunteers, use of illegal substance in the workplace, health, and safety violations. If you are unsure how to classify a particular incident or concern, please speak to Choose Love.

Choose Love expects partners to manage reports of allegations and concerns using their organisation's policy and procedures. However, we ask that you report serious incidents using this form. This form should be completed by the member of staff with designated safeguarding authority observing confidentiality and should be reviewed and approved by an appropriate member of your senior management team and / or a trustee with safeguarding responsibility. Please submit this form to safeguarding@choose.love
